

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

DEAN ANDERSEN,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 07-C-313

v.

HEARING MINUTE SHEET

AMERICAN RECOVERY SERVICE, INC, and
THOMAS BAXTER

Defendants.

---

Hon William C. Griesbach, presiding.

Deputy Clerk: Mary E. Conard

Type of proceeding: Hearing on Motion to Compel/Sanctions

Date: July 12, 2007

Court Reporter: 071207

Time Commenced: 1:39 p.m.

Time Concluded: 1:43 p.m.

Appearances:      Plaintiff: pro se - no appearance

Defendant: Tina M. Dahle

                        Michael Maas

Comments:

Court calls case. Defendants give appearance. Pro se plaintiff, Mr. Anderson, does not appear.

Atty. Dahle states the status of case is essentially the same. There are some deadlines coming up, and they are concerned that they have not been able to complete discovery.

---

Court states based on plaintiff's failure to appear, failure to comply with initial disclosures and failure to respond to discovery and based on the fact that plaintiff has taken no action in regard to allowing the defendants, who have incurred attys fees, in trying to respond to his action, the court is satisfied that it is appropriate at this time to dismiss this case for failure to prosecute and as a sanction against the plaintiff.

If the plaintiff has justification for his failure to appear and failure to comply with the scheduling order the court will listen if there is good cause to reopen.

---

The court dismisses this case for failure to prosecute and directs the clerk to enter a judgment in favor of the defendants dismissing the matter on its merits and with costs.
